SCIENTIFIC SYMPOSIUM

The 10th Annual Ponte Vedra Cardiovascular Symposium is presented by the North Florida Cardiovascular Education Foundation (a Florida 501-c-3 Non-Profit Medical Education Foundation) for the principal purpose of providing the highest quality of evidence based scientific information in Clinical Cardiology. This 10th Annual Symposium will maintain the highest standards established by our nine previous symposiums and will offer the highest quality professional education that is immediately applicable to improve patient care in a form that promotes active interaction between the attendee and the expert faculty in a CME environment that is free of commercial bias.

Our Symposium makes frequent use of case presentations. All presenters will integrate the latest guidelines and most recent clinical trial data within their presentation. Areas of controversies and divergent opinions will be highlighted during the panel discussions. We are especially proud that the Florida Chapter of the American College of Cardiology as well as the American College of Cardiology Foundation will again be partnering with us in co-sponsorship of our 10th Annual Symposium. Dr. Dipti Itchhaporia, Chair of the Board of Governors - American College of Cardiology, will be the featured speaker at our Saturday evening dinner.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Diabetes And The Heart

Beyond Statins
Review and understand the information from recent published studies on the benefits and clinical utility of new lipid and biomarker tests, as well as new anti-lipid treatment strategies. Increase understanding of the role of current and new (2012) ACC/AHA guidelines in the area of angina, with special reference to the critical role of lipid treatment.

Hybrid Procedures In Cardiovascular Therapeutics
Review the increasing knowledge base on the role of new surgical and new percutaneous interventional therapy for structural heart disease as well as arrhythmia disorders. Improve perspective on the role of new advancements in management of structural heart disease patients as well as patients with atrial fibrillation, and the importance of ongoing ACC registry efforts and the new era of medical/surgical collaboration in these complex patients.

Weird Cardiomyopathies
Review the current guidelines as well as recent studies and clinical recommendations in treatment of unusual or “weird” cardiomyopathies. Improve understanding of the implications from recent landmark clinical studies in cardiomyopathy and clinical heart failure.
CONFERENCE LOCATION

The Symposium will be held at the Marriott Sawgrass Hotel and Convention Center in Ponte Vedra, Florida.
